Projects

FastApi No Password Authentication   GitHub

This FastAPI project provides endpoints for user authentication and account management using SQLAlchemy for database operations and FastAPI for API development.

India Recycles   GitHub | Try It

India Recycles is a frontend clone project where I redesigned and replicated the official website of India Recycles. This project is built using Next.js and SCSS for styling. The UI design is entirely crafted by me, and it's still a work in progress, with ongoing improvements and enhancements.

Image Hunt   GitHub

IMG-HUNT is a social media platform where users can upload image links from Pinterest and add killer captions to express themselves creatively.
